No access code included. Drew Humphries This textbook is a powerful, broad-spectrum resource on violence in the United States and around the world. Rochelle Rowley I like this text and have used it several times I would like to describe it as comprehensive enough to give a good overview of the different types of violence but thorough enough to do the most justice. Monica Merrill Excellent book that is highly accessible and very detailed. Gary Maynard A well-written text that explores the wide range of issues in violent crime. Success Kristine Levan The text is very instructive when considering violence in the world. The most holistic text available today. Christopher W. The initial reference to the idea that "all violence is connected" and that we live in a unit of human aggression is a witness to the reality of violence in all aspects of American society.
